5) How has your short-term experience affected your desire to serve the Lord either in relief and development work or missions, either as a "Goer" or as a "Sender"?

6) The Bible often speaks of the value of listening to a "multitude of counselors." What kind of help/counsel are you looking for as you continue seeking God's will for your life?

7) In what ways do you think the Sponsoring Organization can improve in planning a future short-term project?

8) Please list some memorable highlights of this trip.

*Please return the form and answer sheets within 30 days after return from the Short Term Trip.
